

Definition : A function $f : D \rightarrow C$ is a bijection means that it is both one-to-one and onto. The inverse of a bijection $f : D \rightarrow C$ is the function $g : C \rightarrow D$ such that $g(b) = a$ iff $f(a) = b$.